Interest of Gunners Centres in Rifle Tourney for Boys.

MANY PRIZES OFFERED

Ten Indoor Baseball Teams to Compete for Otto T. Bannard Trophy.

Chief interest of the schoolboys, who are attracted by rifle shooting, centres in the annual rifle tourney, which will be held at Madison Square Garden, in connection with the annual boat show from February 21 to March 4. Eleven separate contests are scheduled, and valuable prizes are offered.

The tourney will be contested under the direct supervision of Captain G. W. Corwin, ordnance officer of the National Guard; Captain Diezes, of the 224th Regiment; Michael Jones, Patterson, John McHugh, of the Public Schools Athletic League, and many others of the state militia, as well as the board of rifle coaches of the Public Schools Athletic League.

The championship trophy offered by the Public Schools Athletic League draws the lion's share of attention, and the boys who struggle for supremacy in the sub-tournament are practicing for the grand test to come. All the high schools of greater New York will enter teams and the contest is expected to be close and exciting.

The conditions for the individual shoot call for a total of fourteen shots, seven of which are to be fired standing and seven to be fired lying on the ground. The winner of the match will be awarded a hunting knife presented by the Public Schools Athletic League. Some pretty work is expected in this contest, as many of the boys showed exceptional form in the sub-tournament.

Many of the boys say that they are more expert with the plain rifle than with the machine gun.

The Remington trophy shoot calls for ten shots standing and ten prone, the winner to receive a Remington repeating rifle of .22 calibre. The Winchester trophy shoot conditions call for five shots standing and five prone, the winner to receive a single shot musket.

The indoor baseball tournament for the Otto T. Bannard trophy will open next week. Ten schools, representing The Bronx, Manhattan and Brooklyn, will compete, and the race is expected to be fully as close and exciting as the race of last year, in which No. 25 was victorious over No. 31 by one game.

The schools entered in the tournament are Nos. 43, 113 and 63, of the Bronx; No. 1 of the Manhattan; No. 25, 31, 62, 109 and 103, of Manhattan.

The schedule, as given by Patterson, of the Public Schools Athletic League, follows: Upper Manhattan and The Bronx—February 13, 1 vs. 31; 14 vs. 103; 15 vs. 63; February 20, 1 vs. 109; 20 vs. 31; March 4, 1 vs. 31; 31 vs. 109; 30 vs. March 11, 30 vs. 109 vs. 63; March 18, 30 vs. 109 vs. 63.

Lower Manhattan and Brooklyn—February 13, 1 vs. 31; 14 vs. 103; 15 vs. 63; February 20, 1 vs. 109; 20 vs. 31; March 4, 1 vs. 31; 31 vs. 109; 30 vs. March 11, 30 vs. 109 vs. 63; March 18, 30 vs. 109 vs. 63.

Larry Barnett, the crack ice skater, of the De Witt Clinton, is showing fine form in the races for schoolboys held every Saturday morning at the St. Nicholas Skating Rink. The handicaps are generally a little too liberal, however, and Larry seldom manages to get better than second.

Commerce is mourning the loss of Cherr, who captained the football team last year. Cherr was quarterback on the eleven, and was one of the St. Nicholas Skating Rink. It was largely due to the brilliant playing of Cherr that the blue team was able to hold the eleven of Clinton to a score tie at football.

The relay team of De Witt Clinton, which won the interscholastic relay race at the games at Madison Square Garden last week, are sporting the blue jerseys of the Manual Training team in practice these days. A discussion arose over the relative merits of the teams, and Clinton proposed that they bet their shirts. Manual was willing, and Clinton is now saving the red shirts for racing and the blue for workouts.

Ted Fonda, of Boys' High School of Brooklyn, who won the high hurdles in the recent championships for the third time in succession, accomplished a feat which has been done but once since 1906 and made a record which will probably stand unbeaten for years.

Chalatre, of Commerce, who played on the football team last fall and on the basketball team this winter, is now trying for a place on the Blue baseball team. Chalatre's playing on the squad last year was largely an accident, and he takes great delight in telling how he was "discovered." When the disqualification of Schwartz, Morrell and Schacht weakened the Commerce nine Chalatre went out to see a game. As it happened, Grant, the coach, had only eight boys, and he approached Chalatre and asked if he went to Commerce and could he play ball.

"Sure," answered Chalatre, "baseball is my middle initial."

"Can you play second base?" asked Grant.

Chalatre never played in the infield, he explained, but he was willing to take a chance. Grant, who was looking for a man to stand on second base and not to move, his sole duty was to fill up the infield, and Erhart was to cover second base and shortstop.

The scheme worked well until the seventh inning, when one of the opposing team's easy grounders down toward second base and Chalatre went after it. He fumbled the ball, tried to pick it up, but he kicked it, but he stuck to the pursuit of it and finally fell on it, but by that time the runner was on second base and the crowd was howling in derision at the excuse for a ball player. Criticism failed to discourage Chalatre, he tried for the tenth and made the field and scored a good game all the rest of the season, but he has never forgotten his first and last trial in the infield.

Morrell, formerly of Commerce, is now a full fledged actor with a vaudeville company.

Schacht is signed with Bill Gilbert's team in the O. and P. League, and Schwartz is in his father's business.

Dick Maynard, of "Poly Prep," who won the running high jump in the "Prep" track last week, is in the midst of the "Prep" track team. He is only a few inches over five feet, but he has leaped over 5 feet 9 inches in practice, and in the meet he beat the best of the Public Schools Athletic League champion, with a jump of 5 feet 5 inches.

"Hack" Salisbury, of "Poly Prep," is rated by many experts of athletics as one of the most promising boys who have attended local schools since the time of the Bannard brothers, of Clinton. Jessup, of Bay Ridge, is a very promising boy, and is expected to be a good game all the rest of the season, but he has never forgotten his first and last trial in the infield.

Bill Phillips, of Morris, is now running in the relay team of Fordham College. "Peanuts," as he is dignified by his friends, is a speedy lad, and on a rough country road ran 40 yards in 47 seconds three years ago.

MAUFOME WINS THIRD VICTORY.

Pierre Maufome, the Mexican champion, representing St. Louis, won his third consecutive victory in the National Amateur Three-Cushion Billiard League when he defeated the New York representative in the final game of the series at Doyle's Academy, last night. The score was 30 to 4.

Charles Garmentini opened the game for this city, but he soon showed that he was in poor form, retiring in favor of Joe Stone in the first inning, with a score of 1 to 0 at the end of the fifty-first inning, with a score standing at 31 to 19 in Maufome's favor. The latter had a high run in 4.
